

Privacy declaration

AIM Recycling can process your personal data when you make use of the website. This can only happen when you provide this data via the contact form or application form. The data entered in one of these forms will not be stored in any database, for any purpose.

AIM Recycling Europe can process following data:

- Your first and last name
- Your address
- Your phone number
- Your email address

AIM Recycling Europe only uses your personal information, received via the website, to make contact with you via phone, mail or post upon request. The data collected via the website can only be used to handle your question or job application.

AIM Recycling Europe will only provide your personal data to a third party when this is necessary to carry out the requested action, or to comply with legal requirements. The data will only be used for specific, clearly defined and justified causes and will not be kept longer than strictly necessary.

You have the right to ask for a correction of your data or to be forgotten. You can send the request for a correction or removal to info@aimeurope.be. The request for removal is only possible when the legal term of data storage has expired.

We do not store any personal information from cookies during your visit on our website.

AIM Recycling Europe takes the protection of your personal data seriously and will take appropriate measures to avoid any misuse of information.
